"Only a mule that has no pride of ancestry, nor any hope of posterity."

Very few young people give much thought to their ancestry, but as they grow older, their interest is often aroused. Most older people have an interest in their ancestry and much hope of their posterity.

OUR ANCESTRY QUEST

Young people, as a rule, do not give much thought to their ancestry, but as they grow older, their interest is often aroused, and sometimes too late to get information from their grandparents, or even from their own parents.

Until just a few years ago, we knew just a little about our Morton ancestry. As that fact became apparent, we decided to do something about it. So in 1921, our quest began, with only the idea of finding out more about our ancestry, and with no thought of compiling a genealogy.

We started to pen down some of the data, and after several journeys to Connecticut and Vermont, and other places, the data accumulated, and in order to better preserve it, we decided to have it published.

Our search has taken us to forty-two of our United States, to Canada, and to Mexico. We have been to Connecticut ten times, and to Vermont seven times, to look for probate records, vital records, land deed records, Bible records, and cemetery records. Also to call on descendants for Bible records, and private records. We have also received much data by mail from descendants, many of whom we have never seen.

It has been a great pleasure, to meet so many of our kin folks, especially some of the older members of our Morton family. Many of them had not heard much of their kin for many years, and were as glad to see us, as we were to see them, for we brought them news of their kin folks. Such was the case, when we went to Kentucky in 1928, to look for the descendants of grandfather's brother Hezekiah Morton. The last communication they had was a letter, that had been written in 1862, just 66 years before. It was there in Kentucky, in 1928, that we were shown the old and now much treasured letter, written in 1835, in Michigan, to Hezekiah Morton, (No.262) by his mother, Nancy Morton, our great-grandmother, the wife of Isaac Morton, Jr. (No.79), and there were four additional notes written in that same letter, by Isaac Morton III (No.267) and his wife, Harriet Morton, by Washington D. Morton, (No.268) and by Isaac Whiting Morton, (No.596), the son of Hezekiah's brother, Simeon Morton (No.261). So there were five people who wrote that letter. It was written on a large double sheet of paper, and folded to form an envelope, sealed with wax, and the cost to send the letter was 25 cents. We have a photostatic copy of this letter. So we have a copy of the handwriting of great-grandmother, of grandfather, and of grandmother. The old letter is in the possession of Dr. Benjamin H. Parrish, (No.1952) of Cloverport, Ky.

We found the old Bible of Hezekiah Morton, in Ky., and in it was written the death date of his father, with the age, the only place where we have found it.

We were very lucky to find Elisha Gillett Morton,Jr. (No. 806), of East Windsor, Conn., on our first visit to Conn. He was then 85 years old, and lived on the homestead of his great-grandfother, John Morton, Rev. Soldier, (No.74), where he was born and had always lived. His grandfather and father had lived on that same homestead before him, and also, his great-great-grandmother, Eleanor Barrett Morton had lived and died there. We visited him several times, as he lived to be almost 92 years old. He retained his memory, and told us many things, which were of the utmost importance to us in compiling our Morton genealogy. It was fortunate that he was interested in genealogy. He had a copy of the Thompson Genealogy, his mother's family.

Elisha Gillett Morton,Jr., told us about his great-great-grandmother, Eleanor Barrett Morton. After her husband died in 1790, she lived with her two younger sons, until they married, then she went to live with her oldest son, John Morton, until he died Jan. 15, 1820. Then John's son, Elisha Morton, (No.219) took care of her until her death on April 30, 1825, past 94 years of age. Elisha Morton was her grandson, and also was the grandfather of Elisha Gillett Morton, Jr.

He also told us about the four brothers of his great-grand father, and the brother of his grandfather, who left Conn., and settled in Vermont. Those four brothers were Diodate, Isaac, Jr., Russell and Zebulon Morton, and the other one was Martin Morton. He also told us that Abner and Alexander were brothers of his great-grandfather, and Chloe was his sister. He said he remembered his great-aunt Ruth, the wife of his Uncle Alexander Morton, as he was 13 years old, when she died, and they lived near by. He also told us about her son Willis Morton, going to California and dying there soon after.

He also told us much about his grandfather's brothers and sisters, and his grandfather's children. He told us where some of his Morton relatives lived near by, so we could call on them for data. Also, where some lived away in other States.

His knowledge of his relationship to the Conn. branch of our family, helped us know who was who and made it possible to later get more of their data from the vital records, and other sources.

Another great help to us, was an old letter, which was shown to us, by Mrs. Benj. F. Pinney, (No.1098), the first time we visited her at her home, near Somersville, Conn. The letter was written in 1883, by her Uncle Alex Morton Bancroft, (No.588) of Woodstock Valley, Conn. to his mother, Joanna Morton Bancroft, of East Windsor, Conn. after he had visited his Uncle Alexander Morton's children near Pontiac, Ill. Thet letter was the means of tracing Alexander Morton, Jr. and his two brothers, Seth and Horace Morton and their descendants. Those three brothers left Conn. and settled in Ohio. Later Alexander settled in Ill.

It was our great pleasure in 1922, to find William W. Morton, (No.625) and his wife Arvilla, of Selkirk Beach, near Pulaski, N.Y. He was then 85 years old and she was 81 and they had been married almost 66 years. They were a grand old couple, and retained their memories until the last, and were a great help to us. They lived to be wedded almost 76 years. We attended their 73rd, and also their 75th wedding anniversaries.

We have received much help from Mrs. S.L.Prime, of Hartford, Conn., with her branch of our Morton family, the descendants of Ruth (Morton) Williams. Also, from Mrs. William A. Mylchreest, of Middletown, Conn., with the descendants of Abner Morton. Also, from Miss. Ruth E. Morton, of E. Hartford, Conn., with the descendants of Willis Morton. And from Mrs. Benj. F. Pinney, of Somersville, Conn. of descendants of Joanna (Morton) Bancroft. Also from Mrs. Clifford B. Goodrich, of Richmond, Vt., with the descendants of Zebulon Morton. And from Mrs. John Lincoln of Malone, N.Y., and Mr. George M. Fountain, of Conway, Mass., and Mrs. John E. Sass, of Ames, Iowa, with the descendants of Diodate Morton. We also received aid from Mrs. Benj. F. Salzer, of Denver, Colo., and from Miss Blanche M. Butler, of San Francisco, Calif., and from Mrs. Harriet M. Armstrong, of Seattle, Wash., with the descendants of Russell Morton. We received aid from Mrs. Jesse E. Legg, of Pontiac, Ill., and Mrs. A.W. Stoolman, of Champaign, Ill., and Mrs. Charles W. Dovel, of Narka, Kan., with the descendants of Alexander Morton, Jr. And from Mrs. Franklin C. Beers of Salt Lake City, Utah, with the descendants of Meribah Morton Behunin. And from Mrs. Wesley Whattam, of Picton, Ontario, Canada, of those of Rumah Morton Tyler. We have also received much help from the many relatives who so kindly sent data in letters. To all the above, we extend our sincere thanks, and acknowledge our deep appreciation for the aid given.

We must also acknowledge the great help received from many of our great public libraries. From the Conn. State Library, at Hartford, Conn., and its Barbour Collection of Vital Records. From the Vermont State Vital Records at Montpelier, Vt. and Vt. State Library. From the New England Historical and Genealogical Society's Library at Boston, Mass. From the Los Angeles City Library, and the S.A.R. Library, both at Los Angeles, Calif. We have also received much help from our oun great library, at the Burton Historical Collection at Detroit, Mich. and the Michigan State Library at Lansing, Mich. To all the libraries above we extend our sincere thanks.

Another source of information, was a book that had belonged to our grandfather, Isaac Morton III (No.268). It was a blank book into which he had written a short genealogy of both sides of his family. He had also written a number of prose articles, one of which was concerning his early life in Vermont, and about his parents, to whom he paid a high tribute.

He also wrote some poems he had composed, one poem after the death of his wife, the first verse of which is engraved on her tombstone. We enclose a part of said writings below:

"GENEALOGY OR PEDIGREE

Having obtained the early knowledge, that my great grandfather came from England, being on Englishman by birth, bearing the name Isaac Morton, three brothers having migrated from the old world, in that early day.

My grandfather's name was Isaac, also. His birth and residence, was in the State of Connecticut, where my father and his numerous brothers were born. My grandmother's maiden name was Eleanor Barrett. My father's name was Isaac. He had five brothers and one sister. The eldest was John, the second Diodate, the third Abner, the fourth Russell, thus you see that my name being Isaac, that I am the fourth in succession. From the loins of my great grandfather sprang a nation that in an early day was confined ot the New England States. In my father's family there were six boys and three girls. Lester, Simeon, Hezekiah, Solomom, Isaac and Washington. Of the girls, Rumah, Dimis and Meribah. Of the nine children, there are four now living. These all are now living on borrowed time. Lester died in Pennsylvania, at the advanced age of Ninety-two. Simeon died in Penn. at the age of eighty-nine. Hezekiah died in Kentucky, being over seventy years old. Dimis Died in Mich. I think she was over seventy years old. Meribah died many years agao, at an early period of life, being a young mother of one or two children. She was married to Isaac Behanon. And now is living, respectively, Rumah Tyler, the mother of Capt. Lester M. Tyler, of Pulaski, N.Y., her age is I think about eighty-six. Solomon is living in the State of New York, at the age of eighty. Washington is living at Saline, Mich., at about seventy-one. I am living in Tyrone, Livingston Co., Mich. and will be seventy-four on the third day of April. This is written on the 12th day of March, 1881.

I will proceed to give the genealogy of my mother's family origin, as far as circumstances will warrant me. My grandfather on my mother's side, was named Ebenezer Drake. My grandmother's name is forgotten. My mother had three brothers and two sisters, besides herself, making six children in the family, respectively. Anson, Chauncey and Wafner. My mother's name was Nancy, her sister Theodocia married Benjamin Smith, and I think that her sister Olive married a Stearns,

After having stirred the slumbering embers, I found in the long neglected ashes, the name of my grandmother on my mother's side. My grandmother's maiden name was -STEDMAN- after a lapse of many years a casuel thought brought back to my mind, those seemingly long forgotten names, and the teachings of my parents, in my early days.

Whilst I pass over with a retrospective view, and mark the character of this vast progeny, I may be allowed to say, without being charged of braggadocia, that many I find of worthy repute, many are ministers of the Gospel of Christ. This I leave as a memorial, that whilst they have passed from earth, that their names may be embalmed in the memories of the living. Written by Isaac Morton, on the 12th of March, A.D. 1881.

Duty and parental affection compels me to add one more paragraph to this biography. My father died in the town of Williston, Chittenden County, Vermont, at the age of sixty-four. Thus he sleeps, quiet and alone, where he was placed by kind hearts, and loving hands and faithful angels watch over the sleeping remains, as over the body of Moses. My mother died in the town of Tyrone, Livingston Co., Mich. Thus they sleep, far from each other, but their immortal souls dwell together in that place that Jesus went to prepare for them. Long since we bid adieu, and paid the last respect, to those that we owe our lives, second to God, yet they are ever present and prominent in the chambers of our memories. Long may those holy precepts and examples that sprung from parental hearts, whose aim and object alone was to lead the little flock entrusted to them, to green fields and living fountains, and now they have gone to their rewards, they have ceased from their labor, and their works do follow them.

We drank the bitter cup, when the golden bowl was broken, but may we keep in the archives of our memories, that whilst we passing through the cloud, we may battle with the tempest and storm of this life, that when we near the port, the glorious sun may burst its hiding place, then to our ravished eyes may appear, the glories of the bow of promise at the departing storm.

Written by Isaac Morton,
March 12th, 1881"

We revere the sentiments grandfather expressed and we appreciate the genealogical data he wrote down in the above quotation, which was without the shadow of doubt, to the best of his knowledge, correct, for he was a man of integrity. But we have found several mistakes. He wrote it nineteen years after his mother died.

About his father's brothers: Abner was 2nd oldest and Diodate was 3rd, and Alexander was 4th, whom he did not mention. But Elisha Gillett Morton, Jr, said that Alexander was brother of his great grandfather and that Alexander's wife, his Aunt Ruth lived near his home and that he remembered her. He also made a mistake about his sister Meribah, as the Bible record of Meribah's husband showed that she had five children two of them dying young. In an old letter written in 1835 by Meribah's mother she wrote that Meribah died, three children, the youngest six weeks old. (leaving)

Grandfather wrote a series of articles, on many different subjects, and putting a verse of some of the poems he composed after each article.

The following is from his prose writing.

"It may be mine to make a few remarks before I close this brief stay and unprofitable journey of life. It has been mine to devote the powers and faculties, that the wise Creator has endowed me with, for the benefit of the rising generation, especially for my children and my children's children. But in summing up, I am left to exclaim like the wise teacher "All is vanity." And whilst I am now living upon borrowed time, and at the foot of the hill of life, I see the stormy Jordan, there I shall soon wet my feet, and pass over, where I may forget the sorrows of life.

I am old and fast declining,
Now I ask to no longer stay.
Soon my mind will cease it rhyming,
And my spirit fly away.
Original by I.M."

"And now on the 25th day of Nov. 1880, whilst I sit by my desk, in a comfortable room, of my own domocile, I am carried back to the land of my nativity, the place of my birth, amid the verdant hills of the Green Mountains, that place is yet sacred. It is there I see the companions of my boyhood days, as though we were all young, engaged in the sportive scenes of life. It was there that my mother instilled into my youthful mind, the heinous nature of sin. It was there she taught me the omnipresence of God, and the obligation that we were under to Him. It was there that my father gave me wise instructions, both by precept and example. It was there that I burried my father, a father and a citizen, for moral worth and integrity, the world might be proud. It was there, and well do I remember, although in my childhood days, when my father and mother, engaged in the battle for Christ, joined themselves with the Baptist Church. It was there I loved and married my wife, that I brought far away from her nesting place, of her parent's home. How romantic the scenes of the past, by times gush upon my memory, but soon they are draped by a somber cloud. Half a century has nearly passed, since I left my fatherland, and found my nesting place in the wilds of Michigan. How varied, how checkered the scene of human life. For nearly fifty years our joys and our sorrows were mutual, but in an unexpected hour, the messenger came. She bid me farewell, and was gone. Gone to that bourne, from whence no traveler returns.

I held her form in my embrace,
The gentle dove had flown.
Flown to its glorious resting place,
Original I.M."

"Departed Wife
Sleep darling in thy narrow bed,
For Christ has sanctified and blest,
Thy molding place rich flowers will spread,
Forget-me-nots upon thy brast.

Thy smiles in sickness and in health,
Would vanquish sorrow fast away,
The hand that plied the many cares,
Now mingles with its mother clay.

Can I forget that dreadful night,
Clasped to my bosom there she fell.
She saw my tears, bid me not weep,
I bid you one and all farewell.

For fifty years we lived in love,
I love her, claim her still as mine.
She took with her the pledge of love,
And left with me her love behind.

This love a ring that ne'er will break,
It did our hearts together twine.
Though sorrows path I alone must take,
I will the hill of Zion climb.
by Isaac Morton."

The first verse of above poem is engraved on her tombstone. A large monument with his name on also.

Copy of the will of Mary Morton, (wife of William Morton, (I) of Windsor, Conn., which is deposited in the Conn. State Library at Hartford, Conn.

Will dated Jan. 18, 1719-20.

In the name of God amen, I, Mary Morton, of Windsor in the County of Hartford, and Colony of Connecticut, in New England, widow, being weak in body, and of sound mind and memory, and being mindful of death and willing to settle the Estate which it hath pleased to God to give me, Do make and ordain this my last Will and testament as follows:

First: - I give my soul into the hands of God, my Creator hoping in his mercy through Jesus Christ, my merciful Redeemer, and my body to the earth to be decently buryed.

2ndly - My will is that my just debts and funeral charges be fully paid out of my estate.

3rdly - I devise and give unto my two sons, John Morton and Samuel Morton all my lands which do or ought of right to belong to me, as my part or share of the land belonging to my honored father - Thomas Burnham, deceased, and are part of my said Father's estate, whether solved by his wisdom, or as the said lands descend to me by law, to be to them, my said sons John and Samuel and their heirs, to be equally divided between my said sons.

And also, I give to my said sons, John and Samuel, my plow irons, or timber chains, or draft chains, all the irons belonging to my cart, two stubbing hoes, one spade, one cart rope, one hamer, two collars, one hatchet, one wheat ridle, two sickles, all these to be equally divided between my said sons as their own.

Also, I give to my said son John, one pair of money scales, one pewter tankard as his own.

Also, I give to my said son Samuel, one pair of cobb irons, one pair of tongs, one tramel, one pair of brass scales, with the weights, belonging to them, one great Bible, one pewter platter, usually called Old East or Old One, one fryihg pan, warming pan, one old chest, where I keep my linen, one bed with all the furniture belonging to it, one table, ½ of my earthen ware, ½ of my wooden ware, one hogshead, one meal trough, one looking glass, four glass bottles, two bags, one brass skillet, one tabel cloth, as his own.

4thly - I give and bequeath to my granddaughter, Ester Coult, one bed, which I usually lie on, with all the furniture belonging thereunto, one trunk, eleven napkins, one Holland shift, and all my wearing apparel of clothes, two boxes, one pewter basin, and three of my biggest pewter platters, one tablecloth, two little wheels one great wheel, all these I give and beqeath to my said granddaughter, to be her own.

5thly - I give to my granddaughter, Hammah Morton, the daughter of my son Thomas Morton, one shilling, and to each, the children of my daughter, Ann Drake, also, one shilling.

6thly - I give and bequeath unto my daughter Sarah Loomis,

one new bed ticking and one bolster, one powdering tub, and one bed blanket, all which particulars my said daughter hath already in her hands.

7thly - All my other moveable estate of every kind so ever, I give and bequeath unto my daughter, Mary Coult, to be her own.

Lastly - I make and appoint my son John Morton, my executor, of this my last will and testament, hereby rescinding all other former wills by me made, in witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and afix my seal this eighteenth day of January 1719-20.

Windsor, Conn.

Ancient Windsor was located on both sides of the Connecticut River and included Windsor on the west side of the river and East Windsor and Ellington on the east side of the Great River. Old Windsor, Hartford and Wethersfield were settled at about the same time by families who came from Watertown and Cambriidge, Mass., in the years 1635 and 1636. Thomas Burnham was there in 1936.

In the list of freemen living in Windsor, Conn., in 1669 was William Morton, and Richard Morton in the south part of Hartford.

In a list of persons to work on the highway, June 1672 at Windsor, Conn., was William Morton.

In the list of Covenant Members of the First Church of Hartford, Conn., were Mary Morton and her daughter Ann, both joining Feb. 23, 1695.

To help place a seat in the Meeting House at Windsor, Conn. East of the Connecticut River in Dec. 1706 was William Morton, Jr.

In a petition to divide the parish at Windsor, Conn., on east side of the Conn. River, in May 1715 were the names of Mary Morton and John Morton.

Freeman

In New England, in the early days, a freeman was a man who had the right of franchise. In order to become a freeman, a man had to be a land owner, and be a member of a Church in good standing. It was not easily acquired and was a mark of distinction to be a freeman.

Explanations

Each descendant has a number, and a star in front of a number, indicates that the descendant will be included in the next generation. The number in parenthesis after name, stands for generation. (2)

We have written about the accomplishments and attainments of those persons in our genealogy whom we knew best. No doubt many whom we wrote about had many accomplishments which we did not know about, as those who sent the data did not write about them.

It is now 29 years since we started our ancestral quest, and it has been very interesting. We have visited and became acquainted with so many of our relatives, which has given us much pleasure.

We hope this book will give information and pleasure to its readers.

WILLIAM MORTON OF WINDSOR, CONN.
SOME OF HIS DESCENDANTS

Generation 1

1 WILLIAM MORTON (1) b.__about 1640, probably in England, was an early settler at Windsor, Conn. We believe he was the emigrant. He was a freeman living in Windsor, Conn., Oct. 11, 1669. At the same time Richard Morton was a free man living on the south side of Hartford, Conn. There was a Samuel Morton at Hartford, Conn., a single man, who died Sept. 25,1667, whose estate was probated at Hartford. They might be the three brothers spoken of in the tradition which is in the widely spread branches of descendants of William Morton and Richard Morton.

William Morton settled on the East side of the Connecticut River, in Windsor, Conn., which was later changed to East Windsor, and still later to South Windsor. He lived near the Podunk River and near the East Hartford line. His father-in-law, Thomas Burnham lived near by. Thomas Burnham was a prominent citizen, a lawyer and a large landowner, which he bought direct from the Indians. It is said his land was much of what is now East Hartford and South Windsor. Many of his descendants are still owners of land there. We wish to note that all descendants of William and Mary Morton are also descendants of Thomas and Ann (Wright) Burnham.

William Morton married Mary Burnham March 21, 1670, dau. of Thomas and Ann (Wright) Burnham, b.__1642 in Windsor, Conn. Mary was a covenant Member of the First Church of Hartford Conn. She d. Jan. 30, 1720. Her will is deposited in the Conn. State Library. Their children were all born in Windsor, and some of them were baptized in the First Church of Hartford, Conn. William Morton and his son William Morton, Jr., unmarried, died at about the same time before Jan. 7, 1712, when both of their estates were probated at Hartford, Conn.

80 ISAAC MORTON, JR. (4) b. _____1766, at E. Windsor, Conn, son of Isaac and Eleanor (Barrett) Morton, mar. Nancy Drake_____dau. of Ebenezer and Martha (Steadman) Drake, b. March 15, 1767, at E. Windsor, Conn. She was a descendant of John Drake, early settler at Windsor, Conn.

Isaac Morton, Jr., was called Jr. on a land deed dated March 10, 1786, at E. Windsor, Conn., when he bought land from David Wood. On another land deed, dated Dec. 2, 1801, he is said to be from E. Windsor, Conn., but on another land deed dated Sept. 23, 1802, he is said to be from Williston, Vt.

They lived in E. Windsor, Conn., until early in 1802, when they removed to Williston, Vt., with their six eldest children. His brothers Diodate and Russell Morton had already settled at Williston, and later his brother Zebulon also settled there. All the four brothers were farmers, all buying land at Williston. The rest of the family remained in Conn., also their mother, Eleanor Barrett Morton.

Isaac Morton, Jr. remained in Williston, until his death Sept. 24, 1830. All but one of his children were then married. His estate was settled in 1832, and then his widow, Nancy Morton, removed to near Saline, Mich., where three of her children had previously settled in 1831, buying land there. She also bought land there, but sold it in 1836, and removed to near Fenton, Mich., where she again bought land from the government in 1836, adjoining her son Isaac's land. She lived on her farm, but later sold her land and spent her last few years living with her son Isaac.

Fabrique, March 20, 1817, at Shelburne, Vt., dau. of Andrew and Deborah (Farrand) Fabrique, b. March 17,1793, at New Milford, Conn. He went to Williston, Vt., with his parents, and lived there until after the death of his father. His five eldest children were born in Vt., and then they removed to Mauckport, Ind., and then to Ky., to a farm about 12 miles south of Cloverport, Ky., near Rock Lick, Ky., settling there in 1841, and remaining there the rest of his life. He went to a warmer climate, because of his wife's health, her mother also going with them. His wife Anna died there Oct. 26,1842, and she was buried on his farm and later other members of his family were buried there and it became known as Morton Cemetery, which we visited in 1928, to get the tombstone inscriptions. Deborah Fabrique is also buried there. Hezekiah Morton was well educated and his two daughters were pioneer school teachers in that vicinity. We saw a letter written by Hezekiah in 1857, to his nephew H. Nelson Holmes, of Leslie, Mich. We also saw several letters written by his two daughters, in 1859. It was there in Ky. that we found the now much prized old letter, written in 1835, to Kezekiah Morton, in the possession of one of Hezekiah's granddaughters.

Hezekiah Morton mar. 2nd Mrs. Martha (Whitworth) Jones, Oct. 12, 1848, widow of Hugh Jones, who was brother of William Snelling Jones, whose two daus. mar. Hezekiah's two sons. He d. March 6, 1865. She d. ___ 1867. Both are buried in Morton Cemetery, near Rock Lick, Breckenridge, Co., Ky.

268 ISAAC MORTON III (5) b. April 3, 1807, at Williston, Vt., son of Isaac, Jr. and Nancy (Drake) Morton, mar. Harriet Abbey, Dec. 3, 1828, dau. of Jeremiah, Jr. and Lydia (Armstrong) Abbey, and sister of his two brother's wives being the third Abbey sister to wed the third Morton brother. She was b. March 23, 1811, at Abbey Hill farm, in E. Windsor, Conn., in a house built by her grandfather, Jeremiah Abbey, Sr., and which is still standing and owned by Dwight Abbey, who invited us to stay over night with his family, when we visited him in 1934. Jeremiah Abbey, Sr. was a soldier in the French and Indian War, and was a member of the old Colonial Abbey family.

Isaac Morton III acknowledged his obligation to his parents, until he was 21 yrs. of age, as was customary in those days. He then started for himself as a farmer in Vermont. Hearing of the advantages in the West, he left Vt. for Michigan, in Sept. 1831, with his wife and child and other relatives. They traveled by team from Williston, Vt. to Burlington, Vt., then by steamer to Whitehall, N.Y., and by canals to Buffalo, N.Y., and by steamer to Detroit, Mich. Then they went by teams again to near Saline, Washtenaw Co., Mich., where they bought land and settled and were real pioneers. But in 1836 Isaac Morton III, his mother Nancy Morton, and Washington D. Morton and Russell Morton, all bought land from the U.S. Government in Livingston Co., Mich., and in Dec.1837, Isaac and Nancy Morton settled in Tyrone Twp., Livingston Co., and settled there permanently. Nancy later sold her farm and lived with Isaac III until her death.

Isaac Morton III was a farmer, but became an ordained minister of the Protestant Methodist Church in 1849, and became a circuit preacher, but did not give up farming. He had scant educational advantages while he was young, nevertheless he became a well educated man, like his contemporary, Abraham Lincoln, by reading the Bible and a few other books. He composed many poems and prose articles, and a short genealogy of both sides of his family. His wife Harriet d. Sept. 27, 1878, his wife for almost 50 yrs. and the mother of his children. He mar. 2nd Mrs. Mahala A. Whiting Decker July 28, 1879, widow of Ira Decker and formerly widow of Joseph R. Whiting. She was b.____1817, and d. Feb. 11, 1899. He d. June 2, 1897, past 90 yrs. of age. He and both wives are buried in Clough Cemetery, in Tyrone Livingston Co., Mich. No children of 2nd marriage. His eldest child was born and died in Vt. and the second child was born in E. Windsor, Conn., and the rest were all born in Mich.

in 1832, where some of his relatives had settled in 1831. He bought land there in 1832 and improved it and sold it in 1838 at a big profit. We have a letter written on Sept. 30, 1835 by our great-grandmother Nancy (Drake) Morton, to her son Hezekiah Morton, in which she quothed Russell Morton as saying that, "If a man could not get rich there, near Saline, Mich. he could get rich nowhere."

Russell Morton bought land near Lyons, Mich. early in 1838 and removed there. His wife died there May 17, 1838, leaving five small children. He mar. 2nd Sarah B. Alden, Oct. 26, 1839, dau. of Isaac and Hannah(Perry) Alden, b. July 1, 1807, in Vermont. She was the first school teacher in the newly organized school in Boston Township, near Lowell, Mich. They lived near Lyons, until Jan. 1840, when Russell sold his farms and removed to where downtown Chicago, Ill. now is located, near the shores of Lake Michigan. But they soon left the wind-swept shore and removed inland to Jefferson, Ill., now also a part of Chicago, where their children were born and where his daughter Laura Jane died Aug. 22, 1852. Soon after, he sold his land and removed to Bear Mountain, near San Jose, Calif., going by Prairie schooner. A short time later Russell and his wife went to Vermont on a visit, but returned to Calif. where he died soon after on July 13, 1859. He is buried in Oak Hill Cemetery, San Jose, Calif., also his sons Alden R. and Edward J. are buried there. His wife Sarah B. Morton returned to Michigan and d. May 28, 1861, and is buried near Lowell, Mich., beside her mother who died the next year. Sarah's son Frank Morton and his wife are buried in the same cemetery.

Russell's three eldest children were born at Williston, Vt., the next two were born near Saline, Mich., and the three youngest children were born at Jefferson, Ill.

Jan. 30, 1841, at Mendon, Ruthland Co., Vt. Her parents settled near Pulaski, N.Y. in 1848. William and Arvilla celebrated their 75th wedding anniversary in 1931, and it was our great priviledge to attend. We also attended their 73rd wedding anniversary.

They both retained all their mental faculties, and were of great assistance to us with our Morton Geneology. Arvilla recited two long poems on her 75th wedding anniversary. They were a grand old couple, very devoted to each other. William sailed on the Great Lakes for many years and could relate many experiences and historical events. It was a great priviledge to have known them, and we cherish our memories of them. They lived with their bachelor son Alonzo, near Selkirk, Oswego Co., N.Y., where both d. only five weeks apart, just before their 76th wedding anniversary. She d. Oct. 18, 1932, almost 92 years old. 806 ELISHA GILLETT MORTON,JR. (7) b. Sept. 19, 1837, in E. Windsor, Conn. on the old homestead of his great-grandfather, John Morton, Rev. Soldier. He was son of Elisha G. and Mabel(Thompson)Morton. He never married, but lived on the homestead of his ancestors all his life, almost 92 years. We visited him there several times, the first time in 1922, and the last time in 1928. We were there again in 1929 but he was gone as he d. June 5, 1929. He was one of the leading men of his locality. He was a member of the State Legislature of Conn., and of the Board of Selectmen. He inherited a large farm from his father, and raised tobacco and other crops. He retained his memory and had learned much about his ancestors from his father. He has been of the utmost assistance to us, in compiling our genealogy, by establishing the identity of many of the relatives, especially those who remained in Conn. He told us that his grandfather, Elisha Morton, had the care of Eleanor (Barrett) Morton, the last years of her life after the death of her son, John Morton. He was a grand old man, and we appreciate the privilege of knowing him and the help he had given us. He is buried at Scantic, Conn. Cemetery, where so many of his relatives are buried, not far from where he lived on the old Morton homestead.

Washington, D.C. His wife was also badly injured, but recovered and is now working and living at Berkeley, Cal The following is from letter she wrote me regarding Ralph's work. "When Ralph was a child in grammer school he would look at the geography and see all the places he wanted to go and see. When he was 15, he started out. He had been in every State of the Union, and in every country except Africa and Alaska. He traveled as Photographer and lecturer, and was with "Thomas Cook and Son for several years. When the war began we went to work for the Government, both in photo work but principally on aerial maps used in the war (World War II) for the U.S. Dept. of Agriculture Cartographic Div. at Beltsville, Md. After the war Ralph had been sent to the Havasupai Indian Tribe, by the U.S. Dept. of Interior, Washington, D.C. to superintend the rehabilitation of that tribe. There are about 250 of those Indians living at the bottom of the Grand Canyon, on the West side. They have almost no way to make a living there except by the tourist trade that drifts down from Fred Harvey Hotels at Grand Canyon, south rim. The Govt. approved Ralph's plan to build the lodge and cottages, for tourists, the Indians to do all the work except the supervision of the Lodge. The Govt was about to loan them the money to build. The Indians would pay it back and it would be their business." He d. Oct. 19, 1945.

Company 1 347 Infantry
APO 448 U.S. Army

Dear Mrs. Beers-

I only know too well that there is nothing I could say that could ease the pain in your heart over the loss of your husband - As his Company Commander I wish to tell you that all of us here grieve with you in the loss of our Comrade -

Your husband Everett V. Beers 6268295 was killed in action 14 December 1944 in the vicinity of Rederchingen Cross France-

On 14 December 1944 this Unit was advancing on the enemy held town of Obergailbach France - During this advance the platoon of which your husband was a member was pinned down by fire from an enemy machine gun - Everett together with several other members of this Unit volunteered to outflank and eliminate this machine gun nest - It was during this heroic action that he was struck by fire from an enemy sniper - after completing his mission - Death was instantaneous -

Everett was buried in a United States Military Cemetery located in Limey France with war time military honors and appropriate religious rites with a Protestant Chaplain officiating -

Everett was well liked and admired by all his associates in this Unit - His loss was deeply felt by every member of this Company - Please accept my deepest sympathy in your loss.

Sincerely yours,
Raymond E. Miles
Captain Commander 347 Infantry.
